I Think I Can is a story by award-winning playwright Kathryn Schultz Miller, one of the United States' most prolific and popular authors for young audiences.

This whimsical play will captivate with its colourful characters and amusing songs. Promising plenty of interaction and audience participation, it is guaranteed to engage children of all ages.

About The Little Company

The Little Company is a professional theatre company that produces quality plays for children. We enthrall children from ages 2 to 12, with theatre that is written, designed and performed specifically for them by professional adult actors. We strongly believe that theatre can help children develop socially, mentally and emotionally. The Little Company was founded in 2001 by The Singapore Repertory Theatre, based on the belief that children deserve the same quality of theatre as adults.

Past performances include It’s a Hot Christmas, Grandma’s Journey, Little Victories, Rumpelestsitskin, The Ugly Duckling, The Snow Queen, The Sound Collector, The Selfish Giant and The Gingerbread Man.

A play for 2-6 year-olds

Written by Kathryn Schultz Miller

Directed by Samantha Scott-Blackhall
Synopsis

It's Becky Watkins' turn to stand up in class tomorrow and deliver her big career day speech, but she is a bundle of nerves and hasn't got a clue what to say.

The problem is, Becky suffers from an acute case of the 'I-don't-knowseys'.

Here to help Becky find her confidence is her house cat and imaginary personal advisor, Professor.

This Professor holds a PhD in Child Psychology from Cambridge Catnip College and has a delightful knack for coaching 'I-think-I-can't' to the shy and timid.

Together with his sing-along assistants Bugsy and Schmuggles, Professor takes Becky on a magical series of exciting occupations and adventures.

Why bring your children?

- I Think I Can is a good platform for discussing issues about fears, self-esteem, and how children can learn to achieve their goals by setting their hearts and minds to them.

- The play teaches children the importance of confidence and confronting their fears and doubts.

- I Think I Can is an engaging and highly interactive children's play enlivened with well-integrated audience participation, laughter, songs and dance.

- This is a delightful back-to-school play for the entire family.

Free teacher's packs created by Julia Gabriel Centre for Learning are available for pre-performance and follow-up work for schools.

What audiences have said about The Little Company's previous shows

"(My son) has never sat through any show/play/movie... but this time he did! The play was fun and interactive."

Zagna Heng

"...quality children's theatre..."

The Straits Times

"It certainly entertained and got the audience asking for more."

The Flying Inkpot

The Emperor's New Clothes

Based on the fairytale by Hans Christian Andersen

From Nov 2007

DBS Arts Centre – Home of SRT

The Emperor's New Clothes is The Little Company's third Hans Christian Andersen adaptation following the huge success of The Ugly Duckling and The Snow Queen in 2005.

Andersen's classic fable narrates the pitfalls of vanity and greed through the story of a foolish, over-indulgent emperor who is hoodwinked by a pair of swindlers.

Filled with songs and amusing characters, The Little Company's stage adaptation promises to be a fun and highly entertaining show for both adults and children.
